

Adjectives

Adjectives are words that describe or modify nouns and pronouns.

Its semantic role is to change the information given by the noun.

Adjectives add detail and clarity to our language, helping us to paint vivid pictures with words.

Examples

- "The red car raced down the street."
Adjective: red
- "She wore a sparkly dress to the party."
Adjective: sparkly
- "He found an interesting book at the library."
Adjective: interesting
- "The old house creaked in the wind."
Adjective: old

Types of Adjectives

- Descriptive Adjectives: Describe the characteristics or qualities of nouns. Example: "The fluffy cat".
- Quantitative Adjectives: Indicate the quantity or amount of nouns. Example: "Three apples".
- Demonstrative Adjectives: Point out specific nouns.
 - Example: "That book".
- Possessive Adjectives: Show ownership or possession. Example: "My house".
- Interrogative Adjectives: Used to ask questions about nouns. Example: "Whose pen is this?"
- Comparative and Superlative Adjectives: Used to compare two or more things. Example: "Taller" (comparative), "Tallest" (superlative).

Practice Time!

Identifying adjectives in these sentences.

- "The happy children played in the park."
- "The tall tree swayed in the breeze."
- "Her new phone was very expensive."
- "The curious cat explored the garden."
- "The fluffy kitten played with a colorful ball."
- "She lives in a cozy little cottage by the lake."
- "The brave knight fought against the fierce dragon."
- "The sweet aroma of freshly baked cookies filled the kitchen."
- "The enormous elephant trumpeted loudly in the jungle."
- "They enjoyed a peaceful evening watching the beautiful sunset."

Here are the adjectives identified in each sentence:

"The happy children played in the park." - happy (describes the children)

"The tall tree swayed in the breeze." - tall (describes the tree)

"Her new phone was very expensive." - new, expensive (describe the phone)

"The curious cat explored the garden." - curious (describes the cat)

"The fluffy kitten played with a colorful ball." - fluffy (describes the kitten), colorful (describes the ball)

"She lives in a cozy little cottage by the lake." - cozy, little (describe the cottage)

"The brave knight fought against the fierce dragon." - brave (describes the knight), fierce (describes the dragon)

"The sweet aroma of freshly baked cookies filled the kitchen." - sweet (describes the aroma), freshly baked (describes the cookies)

"The enormous elephant trumpeted loudly in the jungle." - enormous (describes the elephant)

"They enjoyed a peaceful evening watching the beautiful sunset." - peaceful (describes the evening), beautiful (describes the sunset)

Conclusion

- Adjectives play a crucial role in adding detail and vividness to our language.
- By using adjectives effectively, we can enhance our writing and communication skills.
- Keep practicing and exploring the wonderful world of adjectives!